LifeHouse Theater

Making A Dramatic Difference

CELEBRATING 28 SEASONS OF MAKING A DRAMATIC DIFFERENCE

In 1993, Wayne Scott incorporated LifeHouse Theater as a non-profit community theater company. 28 years later, the theater has grown into an Inland Empire attraction, with an outreach that extends worldwide.

LifeHouse is an award-winning, faith-based theater guided by historic Judeo-Christian perspectives and values. Throughout these 28 years, LifeHouse Theater has produced over 50 original plays and musicals, adapting some of the most beloved stories from history, literature, and the Bible aimed at a new audience looking for quality entertainment that inspires the moral imagination. Highlights include "Phantom of the Opera," "Ben-Hur," "Beauty and the Beast," "The Hiding Place," "Anne of Green Gables," and "Joseph." Many Broadway classics have also been presented at LifeHouse Theater including "The Sound of Music," Disney's "Mary Poppins," "To Kill A Mockingbird," "My Fair Lady," "Seussical," and "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers."

Unique in the nation, LifeHouse is an independent, interdenominational theater whose plays and musicals are exclusive, original productions seen by over 30,000 guests each year. More than 500 volunteer actors comprise our casts of storytellers and join gifted artists, technicians and support staff from all walks of life to stage redemptive, inspirational stories.

The outreach of LifeHouse spans the globe through the SmartLifeStyle TV channel as a number of our original productions, as well as the original program "'A New Day' with Dr. Tammy," are broadcast internationally. Additionally, LifeHouse Theater-on-the-Air distributes original audio dramas on CDs and through digital downloads. LifeHouse Theater scripts are licensed and produced throughout America and in countries all over the world. LifeHouse TV is a new pay-per-view site that streams select LifeHouse productions for those guests unable to regularly attend productions at the theater.

LifeHouse Theater makes an Inland Empire impact as well, awarding thousands of dollars in scholarships, and giving complimentary passes to charitable organizations such as the Ronald McDonald House of Loma Linda, Salvation Army, and YouthHope.

A commitment to education continues at LifeHouse Theater through the LifeTales educational musical biographies for students, which have been performed for thousands of students and offer a fun, educational field trip opportunity for schools. LifeHouse has also partnered with Michael Milligan to offer the StageRight and Team Broadway theater and dance classes for children and adults.

LifeHouse Theater continues to have a strong presence online. In addition to our online ticketing site, information for LifeHouse can be found at lifehousetheater.com, theaterscript.com, lifehouse.tv, and theaterontheair.com. LifeHouse is also on social media through FaceBook, Instagram, Twitter, and Pintrest.

LIFEHOUSE PRODUCTIONS INC. is a family of creative artists from the Inland Empire. We are committed to producing dynamic, dramatic experiences championing the moral imagination as informed by Judeo-Christian traditions. LifeHouse is an independent non-profit corporation funded by ticket sales and the support of volunteers and community patrons.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome to LifeHouse Theater! Whether you're one of our hundreds of veteran season subscribers or here for the first time, we're delighted you have joined us this weekend.

Our 28th season continues today with the return of "Alice In Wonderland." Our original musical is based upon the beloved books by Lewis Carroll. Born Charles Lutwidge Dodgson (1832 - 1898), the author was an incredibly bright professor of mathematics at Oxford University. Pursuing an academic career, he published mathematical works under his real name and created the pseudonym "Lewis Carroll" (versions of his first and middle names in reverse order) for his literary works.

Carroll's famous stories were inspired by the real life Alice Liddell. The then 10-year old Alice asked him to tell a story, as he often did. But this time, Alice and her sisters asked him to write it down. It took Carroll a few months, but he presented a manuscript for "Alice's Adventures Underground," which became "Alice's Adventures In Wonderland." The story was published in 1865, followed by a second book, "Through The Looking Glass," in 1871.

Controversies surrounding Carroll and his books have been largely debunked as without merit. In fact, Carroll was known for his piety and faith, having been ordained as a deacon in 1861. By all accounts, he led a charitable and productive life, publishing more than 300 works that included poetry, mathematics, logic and children's stories.

His well-documented strong Christian faith inspired him to exalt the wonders of creation and the Creator -- and this is evident in his written works of whimsy.

Since the 1960's, unfortunately, the Alice stories have been alternately misappropriated by the psychedelic countercultures, by various punk and gothic subcultures, and -- not surprisingly -- by the darker side of Hollywood. Nothing could be further from Carroll's original intent of mathematical satire, word play and innocent fun. We aim to right this wrong. So, it is with great pleasure that our adaptation returns the story to the family friendly fun it was designed to be.

Be sure to join us next for the conclusion of our 28th season and the most beloved musical of all time, "The Sound of Music." Then, we premiere our 29th season featuring "Noah," Disney's "Newsies," "Aladdin," "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," "Anastasia," and so much more! Season passes are on sale now and are a terrific value.

God bless...
