A Wayne Scott - LifeHouse Production

Gary H. Chan, DDS, FADSA

Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery
Dental Anesthesiology

Welcome to the 28th Season - A Season of God's Provision at LifeHouse Theater! If you are here for the first time or returning—quality entertainment awaits! Whether musical or drama, you will appreciate the unique creativity of LifeHouse productions. We are proud to support LifeHouse Theater and hope that you will tell others and enjoy many more memorable experiences here throughout the 2021-2022 season.

Under the masterful leadership of Wayne Scott, and tireless enthusiasm of dedicated volunteers, LifeHouse Theater is energizing audiences that enjoy unique, creative productions. Performances portray everyday life or fanciful, imaginary places, conveying themes of love, courage, faith, and hope—highlighting the very best in family entertainment.

Our hope is that you would be refreshed, encouraged, and richly blessed by LifeHouse Theater. May we endeavor to care more about value than success, have convictions rather than preferences, and be the evidence of a loving, caring, and forgiving God...to a watching world.

LifeHouse Theater

Making A Dramatic Difference

CELEBRATING 28 SEASONS OF MAKING A DRAMATIC DIFFERENCE

In 1993, Wayne Scott incorporated LifeHouse Theater as a non-profit community theater company. 28 years later, the theater has grown into an Inland Empire attraction, with an outreach that extends worldwide.

LifeHouse is an award-winning, faith-based theater guided by historic Judeo-Christian perspectives and values. Throughout these 28 years, LifeHouse Theater has produced over 50 original plays and musicals, adapting some of the most beloved stories from history, literature, and the Bible aimed at a new audience looking for quality entertainment that inspires the moral imagination. Highlights include "Phantom of the Opera," "Ben-Hur," "Beauty and the Beast," "The Hiding Place," "Anne of Green Gables," and "Joseph." Many Broadway classics have also been presented at LifeHouse Theater including "The Sound of Music," Disney's "Mary Poppins," "To Kill A Mockingbird," "My Fair Lady," "Seussical," and "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers."

Unique in the nation, LifeHouse is an independent, interdenominational theater whose plays and musicals are exclusive, original productions seen by over 30,000 guests each year. More than 500 volunteer actors comprise our casts of storytellers and join gifted artists, technicians and support staff from all walks of life to stage redemptive, inspirational stories.

The outreach of LifeHouse spans the globe through the SmartLifeStyle TV channel as a number of our original productions, as well as the original program "'A New Day' with Dr. Tammy," are broadcast internationally. Additionally, LifeHouse Theater-on-the-Air distributes original audio dramas on CDs and through digital downloads. LifeHouse Theater scripts are licensed and produced throughout America and in countries all over the world. LifeHouse TV is a new pay-per-view site that streams select LifeHouse productions for those guests unable to regularly attend productions at the theater.

LifeHouse Theater makes an Inland Empire impact as well, awarding thousands of dollars in scholarships, and giving complimentary passes to charitable organizations such as the Ronald McDonald House of Loma Linda, Salvation Army, and YouthHope.

A commitment to education continues at LifeHouse Theater through the LifeTales educational musical biographies for students, which have been performed for thousands of students and offer a fun, educational field trip opportunity for schools. LifeHouse has also partnered with Michael Milligan to offer the StageRight and Team Broadway theater and dance classes for children and adults.

LifeHouse Theater continues to have a strong presence online. In addition to our online ticketing site, information for LifeHouse can be found at lifehousetheater.com, theaterscript.com, lifehouse.tv, and theaterontheair.com. LifeHouse is also on social media through FaceBook, Instagram, Twitter, and Pintrest.

LIFEHOUSE PRODUCTIONS INC. is a family of creative artists from the Inland Empire. We are committed to producing dynamic, dramatic experiences championing the moral imagination as informed by Judeo-Christian traditions. LifeHouse is an independent non-profit corporation funded by ticket sales and the support of volunteers and community patrons.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Thank you for joining us! Whether you are here for the first time—or you're one of our hundreds of veteran season subscribers—we're delighted to welcome you.

Our 28th season continues today with the premiere of our latest new original musical, “Jericho: The Courage of Rahab and Joshua.” Recounted in the biblical book of Joshua, this is the amazing true story of new beginnings for the people of God. Their forty years of disobedient wandering in the wilderness had finally ended. As Moses' successor, Joshua was told by God the time had come to enter the Promised Land.

Jericho, however, was an intimidating fortress-city with towering walls. Thousands of armed inhabitants lived within. Nevertheless, the land was promised by God. And He provided an unexpected way forward that only He could.

Enter Rahab. Here was a woman with a most undesirable reputation—that of a prostitute. Owning a house built on the outer walls of Jericho, Rahab found herself uniquely positioned to turn her roof into a hiding place for Israel's spies. She also concealed their identities and whereabouts—a model of faith, obedience and courage.

Rahab came to believe in the spies' God: “He is God in Heaven above and on earth beneath.” (2:11). Knowing the Israelites would conquer the land, she asked the spies to spare her life, and the lives of her family, in exchange for keeping their mission secret. When Joshua and the army appeared for an attack upon Jericho, only Rahab and her family survived.

Though tainted by an unsavory past, Rahab's demonstration of devotion enshrined her place among the heroes of faith recorded in the book of Hebrews (11:31). James cites Rahab as a shining example of how personal character may be transformed by a living faith (2:25). She eventually becomes better remembered as the wife of Salmon, the mother of Boaz, and the ancestor of Jesus.

How encouraging to know that past mistakes need not define us! God and His grace can transform a bad reputation into one of pure gold—and, in turn, our obedience can transform the lives of others. Faith in Him is the key and it sealed Rahab and Joshua's pivotal places in history. In these challenging times, may their example inspire us to also live by faith—with courage and conviction.

And be sure to join us for all the excitement ahead! Money saving season passes are on sale now.

God bless...

Wayne R. Scott, Founder and President
