Making A Dramatic Difference

CELEBRATING 28 SEASONS OF MAKING A DRAMATIC DIFFERENCE

In 1993, Wayne Scott incorporated LifeHouse Theater as a non-profit community theater company. 28 years later, the theater has grown into an Inland Empire attraction, with an outreach that extends worldwide.

LifeHouse is an award-winning, faith-based theater guided by historic Judeo-Christian perspectives and values. Throughout these 28 years, LifeHouse Theater has produced over 50 original plays and musicals, adapting some of the most beloved stories from history, literature, and the Bible aimed at a new audience looking for quality entertainment that inspires the moral imagination. Highlights include "Phantom of the Opera," "Ben-Hur," "Beauty and the Beast," "The Hiding Place," "Anne of Green Gables," and "Joseph." Many Broadway classics have also been presented at LifeHouse Theater including "The Sound of Music," Disney's "Mary Poppins," "To Kill A Mockingbird," "My Fair Lady," "Seussical," and "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers."

Unique in the nation, LifeHouse is an independent, interdenominational theater whose plays and musicals are exclusive, original productions seen by over 30,000 guests each year. More than 500 volunteer actors comprise our casts of storytellers and join gifted artists, technicians and support staff from all walks of life to stage redemptive, inspirational stories.

The outreach of LifeHouse spans the globe through the SmartLifeStyle TV channel as a number of our original productions, as well as the original program "'A New Day' with Dr. Tammy," are broadcast internationally. Additionally, LifeHouse Theater-on-the-Air distributes original audio dramas on CDs and through digital downloads. LifeHouse Theater scripts are licensed and produced throughout America and in countries all over the world. LifeHouse TV is a new pay-per-view site that streams select LifeHouse productions for those guests unable to regularly attend productions at the theater.

LifeHouse Theater makes an Inland Empire impact as well, awarding thousands of dollars in scholarships, and giving complimentary passes to charitable organizations such as the Ronald McDonald House of Loma Linda, Salvation Army, and YouthHope.

A commitment to education continues at LifeHouse Theater through the LifeTales educational musical biographies for students, which have been performed for thousands of students and offer a fun, educational field trip opportunity for schools. LifeHouse has also partnered with Michael Milligan to offer the StageRight and Team Broadway theater and dance classes for children and adults.

Welcome to LifeHouse Theater. Whether you are joining us for the first time or are one of our hundreds of veteran season subscribers, we're delighted to have you with us and we look forward to sharing many memorable experiences with you here. We continue our 28th season with the return of one of literature's most memorable characters, Sherlock Holmes.

Today we take you to the fog-shrouded world of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's mysteries. For Sherlock Holmes, "the game's afoot!" Holmes was so real in the minds of Conan Doyle's early readers, he was considered the United Kingdom's greatest national treasure. When the author tired of writing the Holmes short stories and novels, 60 in all, he killed off the great detective and unleashed a tide of public outrage and mourning. British citizens were actually seen wearing black arm bands in their display of grief!

Apparently realizing he would never have peace, Conan Doyle devised a way to bring back Holmes for a series of additional adventures. Many scholars believe the detective's resurrection earned Conan Doyle his knighthood, bestowed by a grateful Queen on behalf of an equally grateful public. The author wrote the stories for Strand Magazine -- as passed on by Holmes' faithful chronicler and associate, Dr. Watson -- and worked under relentless deadlines. Conan Doyle's wife reported the author wrote remarkably fast, given the complexity of the stories. He wrote wherever he was at the time, whether on a train or at a lavish party in the midst of talking with guests!

Originally serialized in Strand Magazine from August 1901 to April 1902, "The Hound of the Baskervilles" was published as the third of four crime novels by Conan Doyle and is arguably the best known. It was also Holmes first appearance since his intended death, taking the famed detective outside London to Dartmoor in England's West Country. Once there, Holmes and Watson investigate a murder purportedly committed by a fearsome, diabolical hound of supernatural origin. But appearances are deceiving, as you'll discover...

And be sure not to miss any of the great productions ahead in our 28th season including "Beauty and the Beast," "Jericho: The Story of Joshua and Rahab," "Pride and Prejudice," "King Arthur," "Alice in Wonderland," and Rodgers and Hammerstein's "The Sound of Music." Money saving season passes are on sale now!

God bless...
