Dental Anesthesiology

Welcome to the 31st season - A Season of God's Plan at LifeHouse Theater! If you are here for the first time or returning... quality entertainment awaits! Whether musical or drama, you will appreciate the unique creativity of LifeHouse productions. We are proud to support LifeHouse Theater and hope that you will tell others and enjoy many more memorable experiences here throughout the 2024-2025 season.

Under the masterful leadership of Wayne Scott, and tireless enthusiasm of dedicated volunteers, LifeHouse Theater is energizing audiences that enjoy unique, creative productions. Performances portray everyday life or fanciful, imaginary places, conveying themes of love, courage, faith, and hope—highlighting the very best in family entertainment.

Our hope is that you would be refreshed, encouraged, and richly blessed by LifeHouse Theater. May we endeavor to care more about value than success, have convictions rather than preferences, and be the evidence of a loving, caring, and forgiving God...to a watching world.

LifeHouse Theater

Making A Dramatic Difference

CELEBRATING 31 SEASONS OF MAKING A DRAMATIC DIFFERENCE

In 1993, Wayne Scott incorporated LifeHouse Theater as a non-profit community theater company. 31 years later, the theater has grown into an Inland Empire attraction, with an outreach that extends worldwide.

LifeHouse is an award-winning, faith-based theater guided by historic Judeo-Christian perspectives and values. Throughout these 31 years, LifeHouse Theater has produced over 50 original plays and musicals, adapting some of the most beloved stories from history, literature, and the Bible aimed at a new audience looking for quality entertainment that inspires the moral imagination. Highlights include "Phantom of the Opera," "Ben-Hur," "Beauty and the Beast," "The Hiding Place," "Anne of Green Gables," "Treasure Island," and "Joseph." Many Broadway classics have also been presented at LifeHouse Theater including "The Sound of Music," Disney's "Mary Poppins," "To Kill A Mockingbird," "My Fair Lady," "Seussical," Disney's "Newsies," "Fiddler on the Roof," and "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers."

Unique in the nation, LifeHouse is an independent, interdenominational theater whose plays and musicals are exclusive, original productions seen by over 30,000 guests each year. More than 500 volunteer actors comprise our casts of storytellers and join gifted artists, technicians and support staff from all walks of life to stage redemptive, inspirational stories.

The outreach of LifeHouse spans the globe through the SmartLifeStyle TV channel as a number of our original productions, as well as the original program "'A New Day' with Dr. Tammy," are broadcast internationally. Additionally, LifeHouse Theater-on-the-Air distributes original audio dramas on CDs and through digital downloads. LifeHouse Scripts license the scripts of LifeHouse Theater which produced throughout America and in countries all over the world.

LifeHouse Theater makes an Inland Empire impact as well, awarding thousands of dollars in scholarships, and giving complimentary passes to charitable organizations such as the Ronald McDonald House of Loma Linda, Salvation Army, and YouthHope.

A commitment to education continues at LifeHouse Theater through the LifeTales educational musical biographies for students, which have been performed for thousands of students and offer a fun, educational field trip opportunity for schools. LifeHouse has also partnered with Michael Milligan to offer the StageRight and Team Broadway theater and dance classes for children and adults.

LifeHouse Theater continues to have a strong presence online. In addition to our online ticketing site, information for LifeHouse can be found at lifehousetheater.com, lifehousescripts.com, theaterontheair.com and our own YouTube channel. LifeHouse is also on social media through FaceBook, Instagram, and Twitter.

LIFEHOUSE PRODUCTIONS INC. is a family of creative artists from the Inland Empire. We are committed to producing dynamic, dramatic experiences championing the moral imagination as informed by Judeo-Christian traditions. LifeHouse is an independent non-profit corporation funded by ticket sales and the support of volunteers and community patrons.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome! It's a great blessing to continue our 31st season with an audience favorite – our light rendition of a serious story as timely today as ever. This award-winning musical biography of Queen Esther traces amazing true events recorded in the biblical text bearing her name. The story also corresponds with Herodotus' Histories and the recent archeological discovery of the Persian palace where Esther rose to prominence.

When Winston Churchill mobilized Britain against Hitler, he wrote in his journal, "I felt as if I were walking with Destiny, and that all my past life had been but a preparation for this hour and for this trial." History tells us that Hitler was not the first to attempt the extermination of all Jewish people. A conniving politician named Haman sought to implement history's first holocaust. He was thwarted by Esther's appointment with Destiny. Like Churchill, her whole life had been "but a preparation for this hour and for this trial."

While winning a beauty pageant and the heart of King Xerxes, Esther rises from the humdrum life of an orphan to a luxurious life as queen to one of the most powerful men in the world. Heeding the wise advice of her cousin Mordecai, she courageously risks her own life to save her people – securing her place of honor as a heroine in the history of Israel.

Mordecai's reminder to Esther is also a reminder to us: "You have come to the kingdom for such a time as this" (Es. 4:14). And while the Book of Esther is the only biblical book that does not mention the name of God, Esther's availability to the prompting of unseen Providence and the amazing deliverance of her people are evidence that the tapestry of history is woven by a divine Weaver.

May we be inspired by the courage and conviction of a brave young woman who sought to do the right thing and to make a difference – regardless of the cost to herself.

Be sure to join us next for the return of the classic musical fantasy, "The Wizard of Oz," followed by the Broadway favorite "The Music Man," then closing our 31st season with the premiere of the biblical story of "Jonah: A Whale of a Tale." We look forward to sharing many memorable moments with you!

God Bless.....
