Dental Anesthesiology

Welcome to the 31st season - A Season of God's Plan at LifeHouse Theater! If you are here for the first time or returning... quality entertainment awaits! Whether musical or drama, you will appreciate the unique creativity of LifeHouse productions. We are proud to support LifeHouse Theater and hope that you will tell others and enjoy many more memorable experiences here throughout the 2024-2025 season.

Under the masterful leadership of Wayne Scott, and tireless enthusiasm of dedicated volunteers, LifeHouse Theater is energizing audiences that enjoy unique, creative productions. Performances portray everyday life or fanciful, imaginary places, conveying themes of love, courage, faith, and hope—highlighting the very best in family entertainment.

Our hope is that you would be refreshed, encouraged, and richly blessed by LifeHouse Theater. May we endeavor to care more about value than success, have convictions rather than preferences, and be the evidence of a loving, caring, and forgiving God...to a watching world.

LifeHouse Theater

Making A Dramatic Difference

CELEBRATING 31 SEASONS OF MAKING A DRAMATIC DIFFERENCE

In 1993, Wayne Scott incorporated LifeHouse Theater as a non-profit community theater company. 31 years later, the theater has grown into an Inland Empire attraction, with an outreach that extends worldwide.

LifeHouse is an award-winning, faith-based theater guided by historic Judeo-Christian perspectives and values. Throughout these 31 years, LifeHouse Theater has produced over 50 original plays and musicals, adapting some of the most beloved stories from history, literature, and the Bible aimed at a new audience looking for quality entertainment that inspires the moral imagination. Highlights include "Phantom of the Opera," "Ben-Hur," "Beauty and the Beast," "The Hiding Place," "Anne of Green Gables," "Treasure Island," and "Joseph." Many Broadway classics have also been presented at LifeHouse Theater including "The Sound of Music," Disney's "Mary Poppins," "To Kill A Mockingbird," "My Fair Lady," "Seussical," Disney's "Newsies," "Fiddler on the Roof," and "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers."

Unique in the nation, LifeHouse is an independent, interdenominational theater whose plays and musicals are exclusive, original productions seen by over 30,000 guests each year. More than 500 volunteer actors comprise our casts of storytellers and join gifted artists, technicians and support staff from all walks of life to stage redemptive, inspirational stories.

The outreach of LifeHouse spans the globe through the SmartLifeStyle TV channel as a number of our original productions, as well as the original program "'A New Day' with Dr. Tammy," are broadcast internationally. Additionally, LifeHouse Theater-on-the-Air distributes original audio dramas on CDs and through digital downloads. LifeHouse Scripts license the scripts of LifeHouse Theater which produced throughout America and in countries all over the world.

LifeHouse Theater makes an Inland Empire impact as well, awarding thousands of dollars in scholarships, and giving complimentary passes to charitable organizations such as the Ronald McDonald House of Loma Linda, Salvation Army, and YouthHope.

A commitment to education continues at LifeHouse Theater through the LifeTales educational musical biographies for students, which have been performed for thousands of students and offer a fun, educational field trip opportunity for schools. LifeHouse has also partnered with Michael Milligan to offer the StageRight and Team Broadway theater and dance classes for children and adults.

LifeHouse Theater continues to have a strong presence online. In addition to our online ticketing site, information for LifeHouse can be found at lifehousetheater.com, lifehousescripts.com, theaterontheair.com and our own YouTube channel. LifeHouse is also on social media through FaceBook, Instagram, and Twitter.

LIFEHOUSE PRODUCTIONS INC. is a family of creative artists from the Inland Empire. We are committed to producing dynamic, dramatic experiences championing the moral imagination as informed by Judeo-Christian traditions. LifeHouse is an independent non-profit corporation funded by ticket sales and the support of volunteers and community patrons.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome to LifeHouse Theater! We are delighted you have joined us for the premiere of our newest original musical, a lighthearted look at the biblical Jonah.

The Bible's Book of Jonah is only four short chapters, yet it overflows with drama, humor, and above all, the mercy of God. The famous wayward prophet's biography is a vivid reminder that our Lord is the God of second chances — not only for nations, but for each of us.

Living in the 8th century B.C., Jonah was called by God to bring a message of repentance to Nineveh, the Assyrian capital infamous for violence and cruelty. Instead, Jonah ran the other way. His flight brought a divinely appointed storm, a desperate crew, and Jonah's astonishing experience of being swallowed by "a great fish" (Jonah 1:17).

From inside this strange refuge, he prayed: "When my life was ebbing away, I remembered you, Lord, and my prayer rose to you..." (2:7).

God gave Jonah another chance — and through Jonah's reluctant obedience, He gave Nineveh another chance as well.

Yet Jonah still struggled with the Lord's compassion toward those he thought undeserving. The book ends with God's probing question: "Should I not have concern for the great city of Nineveh...?" (4:11). It is a question that echoes through time into our own lives.

As we sail into his story, step aboard with Jonah. Feel the salt spray, hear the storm's roar, and watch God's mercy break through — for a great city, a stubborn prophet, and for all who need a second chance.

And be sure to join us next for the launch of our exciting new 32nd season! Money saving details are on the flyers in your program.

God Bless....

Wayne R. Scott, Founder and President
