LifeHouse Theater

Making A Dramatic Difference

CELEBRATING 32 SEASONS OF MAKING A DRAMATIC DIFFERENCE

In 1993, Wayne Scott incorporated LifeHouse Theater as a non-profit community theater company. 32 years later, the theater has grown into an Inland Empire attraction, with an outreach that extends worldwide.

LifeHouse is an award-winning, faith-based theater guided by historic Judeo-Christian perspectives and values. Throughout these 32 years, LifeHouse Theater has produced over 50 original plays and musicals, adapting some of the most beloved stories from history, literature, and the Bible aimed at a new audience looking for quality entertainment that inspires the moral imagination. Highlights include "Phantom of the Opera," "Ben-Hur," "Beauty and the Beast," "The Hiding Place," "Anne of Green Gables," "Treasure Island," and "Esther." Many Broadway classics have also been presented at LifeHouse Theater including "The Sound of Music," Disney's "Mary Poppins," "To Kill A Mockingbird," "My Fair Lady," "Seussical," Disney's "Newsies," "Fiddler on the Roof," "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown" and "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers."

Unique in the nation, LifeHouse is an independent, interdenominational theater whose plays and musicals are exclusive, original productions seen by over 30,000 guests each year. More than 500 volunteer actors comprise our casts of storytellers and join gifted artists, technicians and support staff from all walks of life to stage redemptive, inspirational stories.

The outreach of LifeHouse spans the globe through the SmartLifeStyle TV channel as a number of our original productions, as well as the original program "'A New Day' with Dr. Tammy," are broadcast internationally. Additionally, LifeHouse Theater-on-the-Air distributes original audio dramas on CDs and through digital downloads. LifeHouse Scripts license the scripts of LifeHouse Theater which produced throughout America and in countries all over the world.

LifeHouse Theater makes an Inland Empire impact as well, awarding thousands of dollars in scholarships, and giving complimentary passes to charitable organizations such as the Ronald McDonald House of Loma Linda, Salvation Army, and YouthHope.

A commitment to education continues at LifeHouse Theater through the LifeTales educational musical biographies for students, which have been performed for thousands of students and offer a fun, educational field trip opportunity for schools. LifeHouse has also partnered with Michael Milligan to offer the StageRight and Team Broadway theater and dance classes for children and adults.

LifeHouse Theater continues to have a strong presence online. In addition to our online ticketing site, information for LifeHouse can be found at lifehousetheater.com, lifehousescripts.com, theaterontheair.com and our own YouTube channel. LifeHouse is also on social media through FaceBook, Instagram, TikTok and X.

LIFEHOUSE PRODUCTIONS INC. is a family of creative artists from the Inland Empire. We are committed to producing dynamic, dramatic experiences championing the moral imagination as informed by Judeo-Christian traditions. LifeHouse is an independent non-profit corporation funded by ticket sales and the support of volunteers and community patrons.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome to LifeHouse Theater and our premiere of “Winnie the Poohsical!” Whether you are among our hundreds of veteran season subscribers, or joining us for the first time, we are delighted to share our latest new musical experience with you.

English author and playwright A. A. Milne (1882–1956) first introduced readers to Winnie-the-Pooh in 1926. The imagination of Milne’s young son, Christopher Robin Milne (1920-1996), and the beloved stuffed animals that shared his nursery, inspired the beloved “bear of very little brain” and the other forest friends residing in a “Hundred Aker Wood.”

The creation of Milne’s stories not only helped the author grow closer to his son, he also experienced a kind of healing after suffering trauma during World War I. Though written long ago, these tales continue speaking to children and adults alike with genuine warmth and wisdom.

We now invite you into a special world where Pooh and his friends encounter pesky bees, Heffalumps and Woozles, forgotten birthdays, and unexpected adventures. Along the way, we’ll discover friendship is more valuable than possessions, kindness more important than achievements, and love more enduring than any storm.

Behind the whimsy lies something even deeper. Scripture reminds us that “A friend loves at all times” (Proverbs 17:17), and that we are to “love one another deeply, from the heart” (1 Peter 1:22). The quirky friendships shared by Pooh, Piglet, Eeyore, Rabbit, Owl, Kanga, Roo, and Tigger beautifully reflect these timeless truths. In today’s difficult times, their example reminds us that the greatest adventures are not found in fame or fortune, but in loving relationships and faithful companionship. No wonder these stories have endured 100 years!

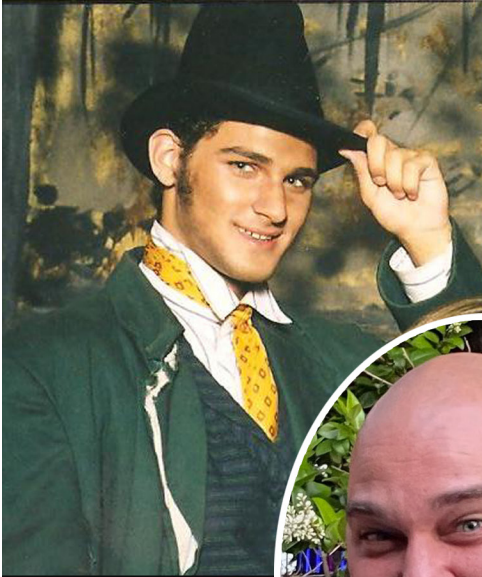

Be sure to join us next for our fun original musical, “The Little Mermaid.” Then, our exciting 33rd season launches with the premiere of our latest new musical, “Jack and the Beanstock”— followed by “Miracle on 34th Street,” “The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe,” “The Rise of King David,” “The Secret Garden,” “Treasure Island,” “Cinderella,” and “Acts of the Apostles.” Money saving season passes are on sale now. Enjoy!

God Bless...
